

CURRICULUM VITAE

First name and surname: Julia Janicka
Date and place of birth: 19 August 1989, Warsaw, Poland
Current address: Tarragona, Spain
Email and phone number: jjanicka@icac.cat +34 667 269 212

Objective: to achieve a Ph.D. based on the iconography of the Tyrrhenian Group and continue scientific research in classical archaeology.

Education: since 2014 Sept. Ph.D. student at the University Rovira i Virgili (URV), under the supervision of Professor Jesús Carruesco García
2013 M.Sc. in Classical Archaeology, University of Warsaw (2 years program)
2010 B.Sc. in Classical Archaeology, University of Warsaw (3 years program)

Current post: 2016 Sept. - 2019 Sept. contracted researcher, member of the Mediterranean Greco-Roman group at the Catalan Institute of Classical Archaeology (ICAC)

Scholarships: 2015 Nov. - 2016 June Beca de col·laboració de suport a l'Equip de treball sobre la Mediterrània Oriental grecoromana del Grup de Recerca MIRMED GIAC: Mirades sobre la Mediterrània a l'Antiguitat.D'Orient a Occident, de la Protohistòria a l'Antiguitat tardana (URV-ICAC)

Conferences: speaker at the XIV International Congress of Classical Studies, 13-18 July 2015, Barcelona, "The struggle for the Delphic tripod - a historical approach to an iconographic motif".

Publications: "The struggle for the Delphic tripod - a historical approach to an iconographic motif" (accepted, proceedings of the XIV International Congress of Classical Studies).

Areas of expertise and excavation sites:

2009 Aug.	Krosno, Poland, 1 month, cemetery of Wielbark Culture, University of Warsaw
2010 Aug.	Novae, ancient province of Moesia (present Bulgaria),
2011 Aug.	1 month; Roman legionary fortress (Legio I Italica) and late classical town, excavations of principia , University of Warsaw
2010 Oct.	Akrai, (present Palazzolo Acreide) Sicily, 1 month; Greek site with a theater dated 3-rd century B.C., University of Warsaw
2011 July	Alvito, Lazio, Italy, 1 month; Basentello Valley Archaeological Research Project

2012 May Calicantone, south-east Sicily, 1 month, Early Bronze Age
 2013 May settlement, excavation of tombs, University of Catania
 2012 Sept. Nora, Sardinia, 1 month, Phoenician colony, University of Milan
 2015 May Uldecona, 1 week, Iberian necropolis, UB and ICAC
 2015 July 69th archaeological course at Ampurias, Spain
 2016 Feb. Nulles, 1 week, Iberian necropolis, UB and ICAC

2012 Feb. Berlin, 1 week, Winter School at Freie University of Berlin and TOPOI (The Formation and Transformation of Space and Knowledge in Ancient Civilizations). Workshop on archaeo-ceramology and interpretation of data using EDX, XRD and SEM methods

Experience in fieldwork: geodetic measurements with leveling instruments (total station)
 GPS measurements
 preparing archaeological material for documentation photographic, descriptive, drawing documentation
 drawing of ceramics
 archiving cataloging
 preparation of ceramic samples for XRD analysis

Subject of Ph.D. thesis: The Iconography of the Tyrrhenian Group.
Subject of M.Sc. thesis: Representations of the struggle for the Delphic tripod on black and red-figured attic vases from VI to IV century BC in Greece.
Subject of B.Sc. thesis: Taberns in Pompeii - location, planning and function.

Internships: 2012-2014 at Department of History of Material Culture and Classical Antiquity at University of Warsaw. Research of everyday life and its material aspects in Greece and Rome.

Languages skills:

	reading	speaking	writing
Polish	native	native	native
English C1	fluent	fluent	fluent
Spanish B1	medium	medium	medium
Catalan	basic	basic	basic
Italian	basic	basic	basic